

Governor's Scholars Program

ALUMNI UPDATES

March 2026

Kim Reeder

Kim Reeder (GSP - UK 1986) took on the role of Director in the Children's Law Center's (CLC's) Lexington office in December. CLC represents children in a variety of contexts, including as crime victims, the subject of contentious custody disputes, and in connection with protective orders and various education matters. CLC also provides policy advocacy and community education. The Lexington office will be focusing in Fayette County along with communities across the Commonwealth. She is excited to pursue her passion for supporting Kentucky's youth as part of CLC!

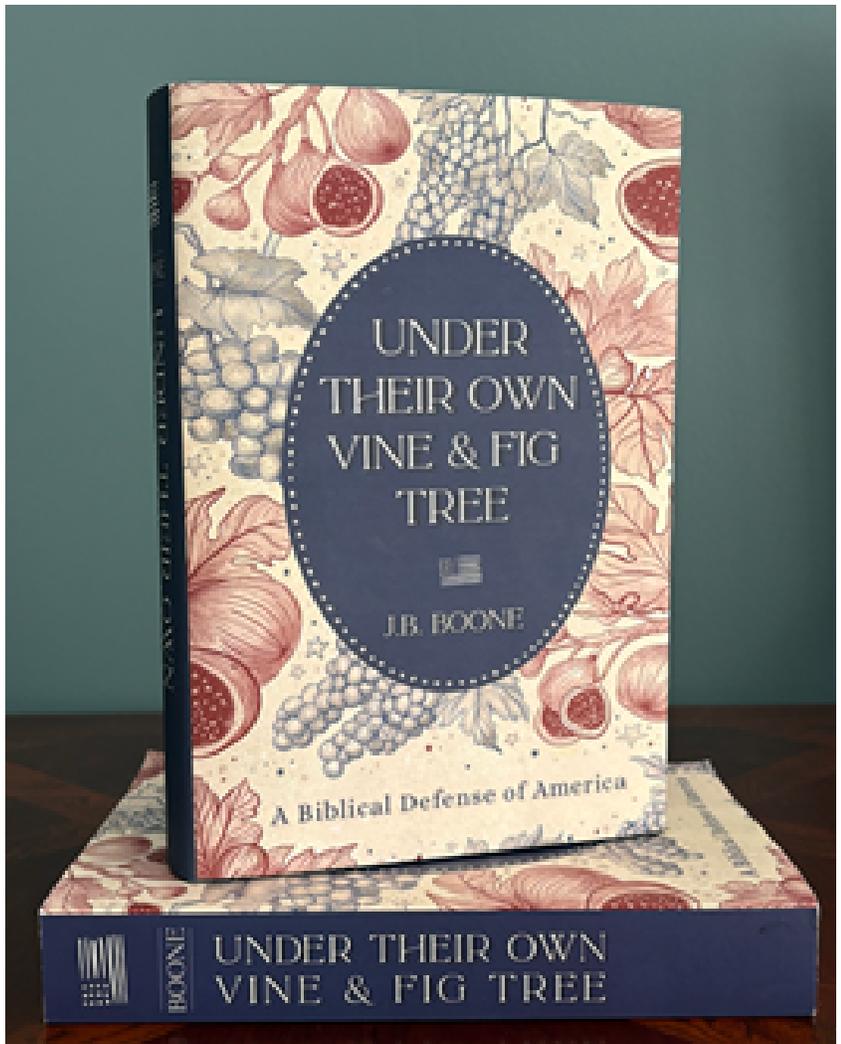

Jessica Bailey

Jessica Bailey (GSP - Centre 1992) was promoted to Director of Central Student Services at Eastern Kentucky University where she manages a fantastic team of professional staff and peer counselors who help students with their financial aid, registration, educational records, and billing.

Kevin Bradley (GSP - Centre 1992) graduated from the University of Kentucky with a degree in accounting and is a licensed CPA. He currently lives in Georgetown, KY with his wife and two daughters and is a licensed real estate broker in the state of Kentucky.

J.B. Boone

J.B. Boone (GSP-Bellarmino 2006) is a rheumatologist based in Louisville. Beyond the practice of medicine, he recently became a published author and released his first book--Under Their Own Vine & Fig Tree: A Biblical Defense of America. The book (pictured above) explores the comparative overlap of Biblical principles with both the classical liberalism of the American Founding and the modern progressive movement of America's 20th and 21st centuries. The book was recently the #1 New Release on Amazon in U.S. National Government and holds great interest for any reader with an interest in civics, faith and/or American history.

Brandon Carter

Brandon Carter (GSP-Murray 2011) is a Staff Editor in the Opinion section at the New York Times.

Amy (Haupt) Wood (GSP-Murray 2013) recently began a new position as the Executive Officer for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Louisville District. She has been with USACE since 2022 working first as a Contract Specialist and then as the Congressional Liaison. Before moving back to Kentucky, she worked in Washington D.C. at the U.S. Department of State in the Bureau of Political Military Affairs' Office of Weapons Removal and Abatement assisting in managing the United States' Conventional Weapons Destruction Program in South and Central America. She continues to be so appreciative of the GSP and the foundation that experience provided before moving into college and the professional world.

Henry Snyder

Henry Snyder (GSP-Bellarmine 2015) moved to Boston in 2022 to work for a family office, then began the MBA program at Harvard Business School in 2024. He graduates this spring and will return to Kentucky full time in June to work on economic development for Louisville.

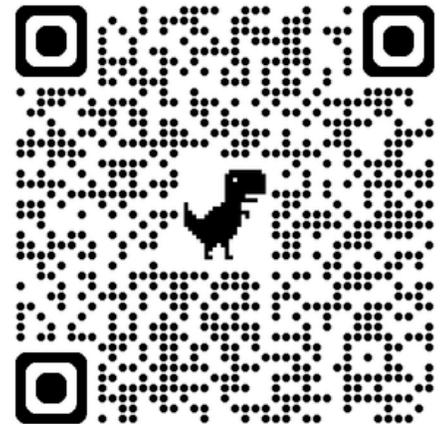

Ryan Walters

Ryan Walters (GSP-NKU 2017) finished a contract with the United States Marine Corps and is now a Special Education teacher at Powell County Middle School.

Gabby Stinnett (left) and friends at GSP-Morehead

Gabby Stinnett (GSP-Morehead 2025) will be attending Asbury University in the fall of 2026.

We would love to hear about the great things our Alumni are doing these days. If you have an update you would like to share, please submit it here to be featured on the Alumni Updates page which will be updated with the next newsletter.